Economic Update Breakfast

Wednesday 20 April 2016, Auckland

Well known ASB Chief Economist, Nick Tuffley, will provide an update and outlook for the New Zealand economy including:

- influences on the NZ economy for the next couple of years
- how the global environment will be heavily influenced by China's growth trajectory and the US Federal Reserve's decisions over whether to lift interest rates further
- domestically, the dairy sector will continue to feel the pinch, while tourism, construction and population growth have a positive influence
- with inflation pressures muted, how interest rates will remain low if not fall further
