Wellington Branch

Getting Board Ready and Beyond

Wednesday 25 May 2016, Wellington

Simon Telfer will facilitate a 3 hour workshop ensuring maximum learning through presentation, peer to peer conversations, case studies and interactive discussions. He will also share his research around governance appointments in New Zealand.

Key areas covered:

- challenging motivations for undertaking board roles
- creating a strategy for securing governance roles
- identifying personal board strengths
- developing a governance CV
- building your governance network
- applying and interviewing for board positions
- due diligence before accepting roles

Who will benefit:

- directors looking to grow their governance portfolio
- executives transitioning in to board roles
- aspiring directors looking to get their first board position

All attendees will receive handouts, notes and a governance CV template

Presenter

Simon Telfer

Simon Telfer has coached over 300 aspiring and experienced board members on how to develop their governance career. Leaning on 19 years international recruitment experience and appointment of over 80 NZ directors and trustees, he is able to offer practical, real world advice. Simon serves on a number of boards himself, is founder of Appoint Better Boards and was co-founder of SpringBoard.
