Meetings, Minutes and Resolutions

Wednesday 18 April 9.00am - 12 noon

Overview

A well-run meeting saves time and money, increases motivation and productivity, and helps an organisation reconnect with its strategic intent.

This half day workshop offers practical guidance on the core functions of meetings, minute-taking and recording resolutions.

Governance New Zealand's expert guidance on meeting procedures and other sources of information will be used during the course.

This workshop is ideal for anyone involved in preparing meetings or recording procedures for any form of meeting e.g. board meeting, AGM's, special meetings, shareholder meetings.

Just some of the topics covered include:

- Organising the meeting – pre and post
- Creating a board work programme and why it's important
- How to ensure the Agenda flows and is relevant
- Taking Good Minutes – what to record and when
- Actions Points – including a detailed template
- Board inductions – key documents
- Documenting Risk – including a detailed template
