

Women on Boards Conference 2018

Our Presenters

Pamela Storey

Pamela Storey is a director with Primary ITO and Agricultural Services Ltd, a trustee with the Dairy Women's Network, board chair of Go Eco, and Chair of the Rabobank Client Council in the Waikato. With significant executive and governance level experience ranging from the Energy Management Association of New Zealand to the international Council for Women in Energy and Environmental Leadership and Access HomeHealth, Pamela has led many organizations through substantial growth and development and has a passion for the significant contribution of community-led change. As a finalist in the 2017 New Zealand Women of Influence Awards, Pamela is known for her ability to facilitate and deliver strategic growth within evolving enterprises. She is a proud owner-operator of a dairy farm in the North

Waikato, has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering from Washington State University (USA) and an MBA from Reading University (UK).