

Governance New Zealand Incorporated Canterbury Branch

Lunch with Jacki Johnson

Thursday 3 September 2015, Christchurch

On the eve of the 5th anniversary of the destructive 2010 earthquake, Governance New Zealand in association with The Canterbury Club invite you to a special lunchtime presentation.

Jacki Johnson, Chief Executive Officer of IAG in New Zealand, will present on topical issues relevant to business leaders in the Canterbury area, including a joint business resilience initiative with BNZ, Red Cross, Beca and Vodafone.

Presenter

Jacki Johnson, Chief Executive Officer, IAG

Jacki was appointed Chief Executive Officer of IAG's New Zealand business in November 2010.

She is a former chair and current board member of the Insurance Council of New Zealand and is chair of the Christchurch Recovery Chief Executives meeting.

Jacki is also a director of the Community First Credit Union in Australia and a member of the Community First Corporate Governance Committee and a former director of the New South Wales WorkCover Authority and the Personal Injury Education Foundation.

Since joining IAG in 2001, Jacki has held several senior positions in both direct and intermediated insurance, including as chief executive officer of IAG's business partnerships division, now part of CGU; and managing IAG's risk management and safety services, New South Wales and Victoria workers' compensation fee based businesses, affinity groups, motor dealers and motor manufacturers insurance distribution businesses. She has also led organisational effectiveness and group strategy functions, and managed the integration of IAG and CGU's workers' compensation business.
