

Governance New Zealand Incorporated Canterbury Branch

April Luncheon & Presentation

Governance New Zealand in association with The Canterbury Club invite you to a special lunchtime presentation.

Lunch with Dr Stephen Hampson

Thursday 21 April 2016, Christchurch

Stephen will present the story of Powerhouse from a local incubator initiative to an Australasian listed company, including future growth plans and the recent crowdfunding campaign.

He will cover the challenges and the pathway with an overview of how the business works.

Presenter

Dr Stephen Hampson

Managing Director, Executive Non-Independent Director

Stephen's career has been dedicated to transforming new knowledge into commercial success. His commercialisation work in Europe included fast-growth execution and business improvement in several acquired companies he was appointed to lead, including the trade sale of one of these companies and the domination of a global niche in another. Returning to New Zealand, Stephen was inaugural CEO of the award-winning Canterbury Innovation Incubator (Cii) before establishing Powerhouse Ventures Limited in 2006. In this role, he has overseen the incubation and growth of more than 50 new companies. Stephen is the Director of numerous portfolio companies.
