

Governance New Zealand

Auckland Half-Day Workshop

Director's Boot Camp - Taking governance to the next level

Monday 3 April 2017, Auckland

This three hour workshop, facilitated by Henri Eliot, will provide practical guidance and useful tools to help you identify your personal directorship strengths and areas for development in order to grow your existing governance portfolio.

Maximum learning outcomes are achieved by the analysis of real-life case studies and examples, and by encouraging interactive discussion. Henri will also share his knowledge and experience of governance opportunities in New Zealand.

Key areas covered:

- Identify your personal directorship strengths and areas for development
- Reflect on personal dynamics and their impact on your role
- Apply your existing knowledge and stretch your skills
- Learn to enhance boardroom processes and arrive at better decisions
- Explore sound practices for board and management relationships

Who will benefit:

- Directors looking to grow their governance portfolio.

Presenter

Henri Eliot, Chief Executive, Board Dynamics
