

Category 7: INSPIRATIONAL EXCELLENCE AWARD

The Inspirational Excellence Award is the supreme Women in Governance Award.

It is presented to a woman who is truly an inspiration and role model for all women, and who has achieved excellence in governance and leadership.

This award is an opportunity to recognise a woman who has inspired others with their excellence in Governance. It can be a self-nominated application or an opportunity to acknowledge a woman in your network. The nominee will need to agree to the nomination and should be consulted to assist with your application.

Information required

1. Curriculum Vitae (no more than 3 pages)
2. Completion of questionnaire
3. Completed and signed copy of Application Form

Questionnaire

Provide a detailed analysis of the steps taken to develop yourself/herself both personally and professionally in your/her governance career to become an inspiration and role model for other women.

List details of the key achievements you/she has made that have contributed to your/her excellence in governance and leadership.

Provide a minimum of two testimonials from individual women who you/she has supported and developed.

(Maximum 2,000 words)