

Category 5: INSPIRING GOVERNANCE LEADER AWARD

The Inspiring Governance Leader Award is the supreme Women in Governance Award.

It is presented to a woman who is truly an inspiration and role model for all women, who has achieved excellence in governance and leadership, and who advocates for gender equality.

This Award can be a self-nominated application or an opportunity to acknowledge a woman in your network. The nominee will need to agree to the nomination as she would ideally assist with the application.

Information required

1. Personal Statement or Nominee Recommendation (Maximum 2,000 words)
2. Governance Curriculum Vitae (no more than 3 pages)
3. Completed and signed copy of Application Form, including two testimonials

Personal Statement or Nominee Recommendation

Provide a detailed analysis of the steps the nominee/you have taken to develop both personally and professionally in her/your governance career to become an inspiration and role model for other women.

List details of the key achievements the nominee/you have made that have contributed to her/your excellence in governance and leadership.

Include examples of activities and the outcomes achieved that demonstrate advocacy for greater gender diversity.

Clearly show how her/your values reflect the Vision and Mission of Women on Boards.

Provide a minimum of two testimonials from individual women who she/you have supported and developed.
