Economic Update Breakfast

Wednesday 14 October 2015, Auckland

Well known Westpac Chief Economist, Dominick Stephens, will provide an update and outlook for the New Zealand economy including:

- the global economic backdrop
- the local and international agricultural outlook
- interest rate and foreign exchange rate implications

Presenter

Dominick Stephens – Chief Economist, Westpac

Dominick joined Westpac as a Senior Economist in 2006, and became Chief Economist in 2011. His most well-known research concerns the roles of taxation, interest rates and inflation on the New Zealand housing market. He has also published research on the exchange rate, New Zealand's labor market, and macroeconomic modeling.

Dominick started his career at the Reserve Bank of New Zealand. He was closely involved in forecasting and interest rate decisions as second-in-charge of the RBNZ's forecasting team. He is from Christchurch, and graduated from the University of Canterbury with a Bachelor of Science with 1st Class Honors in Economics.

His travels include crossing Mongolia on horseback, riding 1000 miles down the Peruvian Andes, and a year spent in the Amazon jungle.
