Governance New Zealand

2016 National Governance Conference

Thursday 8 September 2016

Stamford Plaza, Auckland

The theme of this year's conference is "Good Governance – the pathway to effective leadership".

This year we are changing the format slightly. From every presentation and panel discussion on emerging trends and latest developments in corporate and not-for-profit governance, you will get at least one takeaway that you can use when back in your working world.

You will hear from key leaders in New Zealand's governance, compliance and risk management sector will be gathering to hear from an impressive array of the leading thinkers and practitioners from across New Zealand.

The day will inspire, educate, and motivate over 100 of New Zealand's best and brightest practitioners – make sure you are one of them!

Just some of the sessions on the programme include:

- Building an ethical organisation – a case study
- Board papers – law & practice
- Panel discussion - building relationship between Chair & CE
- Governance for startups
- Innovation risk management – a case study
- Interrogating financial statements
- NFP regulatory compliance
- Building leadership capability – a case study
- Investment governance
- Maori governance – insights and opportunities
- Sports governance
- Building shareholder value – a panel discussion
- Digital disruption - risk management
